

Nadine Azzu works as an independent consultant in the interface of environment and food systems. With a focus on policy contexts, she has a background in environmental management, with over 20 years of experience working in the fields of agricultural biodiversity, climate change, sustainable development, and environmental and social safeguards. She previously worked as Agricultural Officer at the Food and Agriculture Organization of the UN and in 2022, she was the Senior Biodiversity Specialist at the International Fund for Agricultural Development.